

WoAG Travel Advice 2017/13

Subject: Canberra Fog Season 2017

Issue date: 18 April 2017

Dear Entity Travel Manager

As a result of Canberra's Fog Season, passengers may experience delays in arrivals and connecting departures due to visibility issues for Qantas and Virgin Australia. Both airlines have issues some information as a guide for your travelers.

In preparation for these possibilities and based on weather statistics, both airlines will ground aircraft overnight in Canberra for early morning departures. The available flights are listed below:

QANTAS

Monday to Friday:

Canberra to Sydney	QF1510/ QF1310/ QF1424/QF1464/ QF1460
Canberra to Melbourne	QF795
Canberra to Adelaide	QF713
Canberra to Brisbane	QF1562

Days of operation may differ

Weekends:

Canberra to Sydney	QF1470/ QF1464/ QF1514
Canberra to Melbourne	QF1527
Canberra to Brisbane	QF948

VIRGIN AUSTRALIA

Monday to Friday:

Canberra to Sydney	VA625
Canberra to Melbourne	VA252
Canberra to Brisbane	VA1207 /VA1209
Canberra to Adelaide	Morning flights connect through SYD or MEL via Sydney VA625 via Melbourne VA252

Weekends:

Canberra to Brisbane	VA1211
Canberra to Melbourne	VA252

Note: We recommend that passengers fly out the night prior if business is critical to avoid potential delays.

The information contained in this Advice was correct at the time of writing but may be subject to change.

Please contact the WoAG Travel team if you have any questions or require further information.
