Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Delegation

This Delegation is the Public Governance, Performance and Accountability (Finance Minister to Accountable Authorities of Non-Corporate Commonwealth Entities) Delegation 2022.

2 Commencement

This Delegation commences on 1 September 2022.

This Delegation repeals and replaces the Public Governance, Performance and Accountability (Finance Minister to Accountable Authorities of Non-Corporate Commonwealth Entities) Delegation 2021.

3 Interpretation

In this Delegation, words and phrases have the same meaning as in the Public Governance, Performance and Accountability Act 2013 (PGPA Act) unless otherwise stated below.

Unless otherwise stated, a reference to non-Finance accountable authorities of non-corporate Commonwealth entities means the accountable authority for each non-corporate Commonwealth entity except the Finance Secretary, and includes an accountable authority for such an entity created after this delegation is made.

Where, on the commencement of this Delegation, the accountable authority for a particular non-corporate Commonwealth entity (the first entity) may exercise a delegated power or function in relation to a matter, and responsibility for that matter is later transferred to another Commonwealth entity (the second entity), then this Delegation has effect in relation to the accountable authority for the second entity, in relation to that matter, as it had effect in relation to the accountable authority for the first entity.

Note: Section 34AA of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 also makes it clear that delegations can apply to classes of positions or offices, including positions or offices in that class created after the Delegation is made.

Part 2 Delegations and directions under section 107 of the Act

- (2) A delegate cannot grant a guarantee for the payment of any amount of principal or interest due on a loan.
- (3) A delegate cannot grant an indemnity that would expressly meet the costs of civil or criminal penalties of the indemnified party.
- (4) A delegate is delegated the power to delegate this power of the Finance Minister under the provision of the Act.

6.2 Principles

When exercising the delegation, the delegate must consider two overarching policy principles:

- (a) that risks should be borne by the party best placed to manage them; and
- (b) benefits to the Commonwealth should outweigh the risks involved.

6.3 Arrangements consisting of or including indemnities, guarantees or warranties

- (1) The delegate may grant an indemnity, guarantee or warranty, involving a contingent liability in relation to an event, if:
 - (a) the delegate is satisfied that:
 - i. the likelihood of the event occurring is remote (less than 5% chance); and
 - ii. the most probable expenditure that would need to be made in accordance with the arrangement, if the event occurred, would not be significant (less than $30 million).

- (2) The delegate may grant an indemnity, guarantee or warranty, involving a contingent liability in relation to an event in circumstances not coming within subclause (1) where the Finance Minister has approved the grant in writing.

6.4 Arrangements in accordance with a decision of Cabinet, the National Security Committee of Cabinet or the Prime Minister

Notwithstanding the above, the delegate may grant an indemnity, guarantee or warranty, if the indemnity, guarantee or warranty has been explicitly agreed in a decision of:

- (a) Cabinet; or
- (b) the National Security Committee of Cabinet (NSC) or its successor; or

Division 2 Directions

7.1 Amount that can be waived

The delegate may authorise the waiver of an amount owing to the Commonwealth under the Corporations Act 2001 of amounts up to $5,000 for any one fee.

7.2 Applications for waiver to be in writing

A delegate must not consider an application for waiver of a fee unless the application is in writing. In each case, the onus is on the applicant to produce supporting evidence to substantiate the application.

7.3 Extraneous circumstances must exist

A delegate must not exercise the power under subsection 63 (1) of the Act unless satisfied that circumstances exist, outside the control of the officers of the applicant company or its representatives, which make it reasonable for the Commonwealth to do so.

7.4 Consideration of extent of cause of circumstances

In determining whether a fee should be waived in whole or part, a delegate must consider the extent to which the company's officers or its representatives contributed to the circumstances of the matter.

Specific matters which may warrant a fee being waived, in whole or part, include:

- (a) the delay in lodgement is fully or partly the fault of ASIC; or
- (b) the company's books have been seized by the Police, ASIC or other government body. The seizure must be unrelated to the company's failure to

- lodge documents. Where a company's accountant withholds books for non-payment of professional fees, a fee must not be waived; or
- (c) where late lodgement is as a result of a Court not issuing a signed copy of an Order in time; or
 - (d) records are damaged or destroyed by flood, fire, storm or other disaster allowing insufficient time for their reconstruction; or
 - (e) exceptional circumstances delayed lodgement – e.g. illness/accident prevent all responsible persons from lodging within the specified period, an accounting firm merges and notifies in bulk the resulting change of name or address under which company auditors or liquidators practice; or
 - (f) delay in lodgement is caused by a variable industrial dispute (e.g. a postal strike); or
 - (g) the document is required to be prepared or signed overseas and there is a limited period for lodgement.

3	Delegates	Non-Finance accountable authorities of non-corporate Commonwealth entities and the accountable authority of the Commonwealth Superannuation Corporation

Note: Subsection 63(2) provides that an authorisation of a waiver or modification of the terms on which an amount owing is to be paid to the Commonwealth must be in accordance with any requirements prescribed by the rules.

Note: This delegation only applies to the administrative service function of the Commonwealth Superannuation Corporation Board in so far as it acts on behalf of the Commonwealth. It is authorised by section 29C of the Governance of Australian Government Superannuation Schemes Legislation Act 2015 and Rule 29AA of the Public Governance, Performance and Accountability Rule 2014

Division 2 Directions

9.1 Generally amounts owing to the Commonwealth are to be paid in full

- (1) The delegate must have regard to the basic principle that, unless otherwise allowed by law (for example, under statute or contract), amounts owing to the Commonwealth should be paid in full immediately when they become due.
- (2) In a situation where it is not possible or reasonable for an amount to be paid in full immediately and in the absence of any statutory right of the debtor to do otherwise, consideration may be given to contracting with the debtor to allow payment of the amount by instalments or in full at a deferred date.

9.2 Scope of delegation

The delegate may only authorise the modification of the terms and conditions to:

- (a) defer the time for payment of an amount owing to the Commonwealth; and
- (b) allow payment by instalments of an amount owing to the Commonwealth.

9.3 Specific requirements

- (1) The delegate must comply with the following directions.

Cases of hardship

- (2) In a situation of claimed hardship, the delegate must:
- (a) require the debtor to provide evidence (by a statutory declaration or other means) sufficient to satisfy the delegate that it would be unreasonable to require the debtor to discharge the debt otherwise than by instalments or at a deferred date; and
 - (b) have regard to the Commonwealth's interests not being subordinate to other creditors of the same ranking.

Instalments

- (3) When authorising payment by instalments, the delegate must impose conditions on such payment with the object of ensuring that the Commonwealth recovers the amount as soon as is reasonably practicable, having regard to the debtor's ability to repay.

Interest

- (4) The delegate must:
- (a) ordinarily impose interest at the 90 day bank-accepted bill rate (available from the Reserve Bank of Australia); and
 - (b) not impose interest at a higher rate than the 90 day bank-accepted bill rate; and
 - (c) if a lesser rate of interest, or no interest, is imposed – record in writing the reasons for doing so.

Note 1: A reason for not imposing interest, or imposing less than the specified rate, is that, in the particular case, the imposition of interest would cause undue financial hardship.

Note 2: This direction does not apply to Court-awarded judgment debts, as provision for interest will usually be made in the laws of the State or Territory in which judgment was obtained.

Information to be given to debtor

- (5) If the delegate decides to authorise the modification of the terms and conditions, of an amount owing to the Commonwealth:
- (a) the debtor must be informed in writing of the following matters:
 - i. the amount owing to the Commonwealth;
 - ii. the date or dates when payment is due;
 - iii. the interest rate (if any);
 - iv. any other matter the delegate considers relevant, taking into account the evidence of hardship;
 - v. the conditions of acceptance specified in clause 9.4; and
 - (b) the debtor must confirm, in writing, acceptance of the matters specified above.

Note: If the debtor does not confirm, in writing, acceptance of the conditions specified then the amounts owing to the Commonwealth should be paid in full when they become due.

9.4 Conditions

The conditions of acceptance of payment of a debt by instalments or at a deferred date are as follows:

- (a) the delegate may, at any time, review and, if necessary, revise the arrangements to determine whether different conditions should be imposed, taking into account the debtor's ability to pay; and
- (b) if the debtor is an official, upon termination of employment, or other engagement, with the Commonwealth, the amount outstanding must be set off against any final moneys due; and
- (c) any default of the conditions may result in legal action being commenced to recover the amount owing; and
- (d) if legal action is commenced, the Commonwealth may seek to recover its costs from the debtor.

Part 10 Delegation under section 66 of the Act – Gifts of relevant property

Division 1 Delegation

1	Provision of Act	Section 66
2	Summary of function or power	To give written authorisation of a gift of relevant property being made
3	Delegates	Non-Finance accountable authorities of non-corporate Commonwealth entities

Division 2 Directions

10.1 No authorising the gifting of military firearms

A delegate must not authorise a gift of military firearms.

10.2 Overarching Principles

- (1) When contemplating whether to authorise a gift of relevant property, a delegate must consider the overarching principles that, if appropriate to do so, the relevant property should be:
 - (a) agreed to be transferred with or without payment to another government entity within Australia (including State or Territory governments); or
 - (b) sold at market value, where it is economical to do so.
- (2) A departure from the Commonwealth's overarching principles, encompassing disposal by gift, is permitted if the relevant property in question is:
 - (a) genuinely surplus to the entity's requirements; and
 - (b) is either:
 - i. of historical or symbolic significance in relation to the proposed recipient; or
 - ii. holds other special significance for the proposed recipient, and there are compelling reasons to justify its gifting to that recipient; or
 - iii. of low value and
 - a. otherwise uneconomical to dispose of; or
 - b. the gifting supports the achievement of an Australian Government policy objective.
- (3) If a gift of relevant property is being contemplated, the delegate is to consider whether authorising in a particular case would create an onerous or undesirable precedent. If the gift would create that precedent, it must be refused.

Example: If it would be difficult, in equity, for the Commonwealth not to approve other requests for such gifts and which would in that way lead to significant losses of Commonwealth revenues.

- (4) For this reason, the delegate would need publicly defensible and objective grounds to justify favouring the person or organisation with the gift, ahead of other potential recipients.

10.3 Reasonable estimate to be obtained

- (1) A delegate must not exercise the power under section 66 of the Act before obtaining a reasonable estimate of the market value of the relevant property proposed to be gifted.
- (2) If this is not possible, the delegate must use their discretion in assigning a notional value, and must record the basis for determining the value of the property.
