BUILDING OUR ECONOMY. SECURING YOUR FUTURE.

To Residents in the Federal Electorate
of Fremantle

Dear Resident

This year, for the first time in over a decade, the Morrison Government will deliver a Budget surplus.

Western Australia also now has financial certainty, because we've fixed the GST formula. This delivers around $5 billion in additional funding to invest in infrastructure and services.

With a stronger economy, the Morrison Government has a plan to:

1. Create 1.25 million more jobs over the next five years.
2. Maintain Budget surpluses and pay down debt.
3. Deliver tax relief for small businesses and families.
4. Guarantee increased investments for schools, hospitals and roads.
5. Keep Australians safe and our borders secure.

Under the Liberals, WA hospitals are receiving 60% more funding – and funding for all 34 public schools in Fremantle will increase by 70% over the next decade.

The Liberal candidate in Fremantle, Nicole Robins, is a local high school teacher. Nicole would bring a strong understanding of education and a passion for community service to Canberra.

The alternative at this election is Bill Shorten. Labor's risky agenda includes $200 billion of higher taxes – on retirees, housing, incomes, investments, family businesses and electricity.

With your support, the Morrison Government will work to build our economy and secure your future.

Yours sincerely

s22

Slade Brockman
Liberal Senator for Western Australia

P.S. I've included Postal Vote forms if you're unable to vote on polling day.

Am I eligible to vote early?

You can vote early, either in person or by post, if on polling day you can't get to a polling place because you:

- are outside the electorate where you are enrolled to vote
- are more than 8km from a polling place
- are travelling
- can't leave your workplace to vote
- are seriously ill, infirm or due to give birth shortly (or if you are caring for someone who is)
- are a patient in hospital and can't vote at the hospital
- have religious beliefs that prevent you from attending a polling place
- are in prison serving a sentence of less than three years or otherwise detained
- are a silent elector
- have a reasonable fear for your safety.

Carefully consider your options as voting early in person may be an easier option than voting by post.

In person

You can vote in person before polling day at an AEC divisional office or at an early voting centre in Australia or overseas (when available). The locations and opening times of early voting centres are available at www.aec.gov.au or by calling 13 23 26.

By post

You can apply for a postal vote online at www.aec.gov.au/pva or by using this form.

The AEC must receive your application by 6pm on the Wednesday before polling day for your application to be accepted.

Return your completed application as soon as possible. Ensure you leave enough time for your vote to be completed by polling day and then returned to the AEC.

The AEC will start sending voting papers to voters who have applied for a postal vote after candidate nominations are declared and ballot papers are printed (usually 2-3 weeks after the announcement of the election).

In a referendum, voting papers will be sent as soon as possible after the announcement of the referendum.

Please note: the AEC accepts faxed and emailed forms however as the security of external systems cannot be assured, the AEC does not accept any liability for unauthorised interception of electronic communications associated with the use of this form.

About your postal vote application

The Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) is authorised under the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 and the Referendum (Machinery Provisions) Act 1984 (the 'Acts'), to collect and verify the information you have been asked to complete on this application form.

The information you have provided will assist the AEC with processing your application and postal vote and may be viewed by authorised staff and scrutineers. The AEC may seek further information from you or provide you with information about the progress of your application using any of the contact details you provide on your application form.

The AEC, in accordance with the Acts, is required to provide when requested, your name, date of birth and residential address to eligible candidates for the Senate or House of Representatives and eligible registered political parties after the election. In accordance with the Acts, the applications for an electoral division are available for public inspection at the relevant divisional office after the election and until the election can no longer be questioned.

The AEC will deal with the information that you provide in accordance with its privacy policy published at www.aec.gov.au/privacy
