...MEANWHILE UNDER BILL SHORTEN'S HOUSING TAX

Bill Shorten came in like a wrecking ball

- ✗ Wrecked the property market and economy
- ✗ Less building and fewer jobs
- ✗ Hit home values and increased rents

Wrecked the economy and property market

THE AUSTRALIAN ALP property plan 'like a bomb'

Labor's negative gearing "hand grenade" could tip Australia into recession, mortgage broking pioneer John Symond has warned.

19/11/2018

Less building and fewer jobs

According to modelling prepared by Cadence Economics if Labor's policies are implemented it will mean: Up to 42,000 less new dwellings and up to 32,000 less full time jobs.

Masters Builders Association, Media Release, 24 October 2018.

Rents UP and Home Values DOWN

Bill Shorten's Housing Tax means less money to do the things that really matter, like a family night out at the movies.

Don't take our word for it, here's what the experts have to say

"Property investors are not rich 'property barons'. The overwhelming majority of property investors are everyday Australians on modest incomes"

Property Council, Media Release, 18 November 2018.

"I am concerned that it would do so much damage — unemployment, higher interest rates — it could tip us into recession"

Aussie John Symond, Founder of Aussie Home Loans, 19 November 2018.

"An increase in capital gains tax would result in a... increase in the cost of renting"

Housing Industry Association Limited, Media Release, 24 October 2018.

"Property values will fall across Australia with Australian Labor's negative gearing policy... Labor doesn't seem interested in engaging industry on the matter"

Former Real Estate Institute WA President, Hayden Groves, Sky News, 18 November 2018.
