

Activity Statement

ACTIVITY #1: EMERGING DEMOCRACIES PROGRAM (2017 -2018)

Relating to Tranche 1 for Activities commenced between 1 July 2017 and 30 June 2018.

ESTIMATED TIMING OF ACTIVITY

To commence after 1 July 2017 and to be completed before 30 June 2018.

The Activity will involve several delegations and conferences and the timing of these will be determined by factors including other commitments of both Australian Labor International and the organisations, availability of delegates, organisational requirements and any existing pre-commitments.

COUNTRIES AND ORGANISATIONS TO BE ASSISTED / VISITED

The organisations to be visited and assisted will include, though not be limited to:

- Timor Leste (Fretilin and CNRT)
- Philippines (Akbayan Citizens' Action Party)
- Myanmar (National League for Democracy, Shan Nationalities League for Democracy and Democratic Party for a New Society)
- Papua New Guinea (Integrity of Political Parties and Candidates Commission)
- Indonesia (PDI-P and Nasdem)
- Malaysia (Democratic Action Party)
- Nepal (Nepalese Congress)
- Mongolia (Mongolian People's Party)
- India (Indian National Congress)
- South Africa (ANC)
- Other sister parties as identified within the Asia-Pacific region
- Network of Social Democracy in Asia

EXPECTED INPUT BY THE ORGANISATION

Australian Labor International will maintain full planning and implementation control of this program.

Work will include the identification of opportunities and needs, planning, coordination and working with parties to provide assistance in the implementation phase. Through on-going relationships and networks Australian Labor International will work together with in-country support to political parties for the technical aspects of the program. Continuation of programs and training delivered over the past years will also provide an opportunity to build on and develop better training delivery.

The program will also extend to research within some countries with a view to gain a better understanding of the political and cultural environment as well as the environments in which Australian Labor International are working.

Training programs will also be held within Australia with a focus on future political leaders in the region through the Political Campaign Insight Course.

Australian Labor International will also plan and conduct the third annual Asian Pacific Campaign Forum which will bring together social democratic and labour parties in the region to build capacity by sharing experiences, skills and knowledge in the fields of Party building and resourcing and campaigning.

Activity Statement

ESTIMATED COSTS
The overall budget for the Activity will be $240,000.00 The costs will include all expenses associated with travel and implementation of the Activity, however administration costs will be incorporated into the overall administration costs will be included in the "Administration & Staffing" budget component of this proposal.
MONITORING AND EVALUATION STATEMENT
The program consolidates and progresses the work ALI has been conducting with political parties and organisations in recent years and also aims to develop new relationships and identify opportunities to strengthen capacity building and knowledge sharing with a view to promote democracy and democratic parties and organisations. The development of a bespoke approach to the activities will continue to offer organisational development and party building knowledge sharing opportunities to the political parties and organisations in the region. Training sessions for candidates and party officials will be conducted over the course of the program. The aim of this program is to strengthen the accountability relationship between political parties and the constituents they represent. Organisational level capacity development, along with technical assistance projects assists in building stronger political parties that are founded on concrete policy platforms and underpinned by an engaged membership. Additionally, research projects will assist in the development of new programs and assist ALI to develop a better understanding of cultures, issues and obstacles faced by the parties and organisations. Activities planned to be undertaken will include but not be limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Asian Pacific Campaign Forum • Progressive Campaign Insight Course • In country activities including training and capacity building in Indonesia, Papua New Guinea, Myanmar, Philippines, Timor Leste and Malaysia Indicators for the success of the Asian Pacific Campaign will be based upon creating a culture of greater sharing and contact between participating parties outside of the forum and the creation and dissemination of best-practice processes and skills in Party building and management and campaigning. ALI will monitor the use of funds closely to ensure that they are directed primarily to the countries and regions where the need is most significant and where upcoming elections provide opportunities for assistance. ALI will seek feedback both through reports from delegates involved in all the activity and also from the political parties with whom the program is shared to monitor and assess the value of the program to the parties.

Activity Statement

ACTIVITY #2: KURT STEEL CAMPAIGN EXCHANGE PROGRAM (2017 -2018)

Relating to Tranche 1 for Activities commenced between 1 July 2017 and 30 June 2018.

ESTIMATED TIMING OF ACTIVITY

To commence after 1 July 2017 and to be completed before 30 June 2018.

The Activity will involve several delegations, conferences and events and the timing of these will be determined by factors including other commitments of both Australian Labor International and the organisations, availability of delegates, organisational requirements and any existing pre-commitments.

COUNTRIES AND ORGANISATIONS TO BE ASSISTED / VISITED

The organisations to be visited and assisted will include, though not be limited to:

- Democratic Party (USA)
- Labour Party (UK)
- Labour Party (NZ)
- Labour Party (Ireland)
- New Democratic Party (Canada)
- SPD (Germany)
- Arbeiderpartiet (Norway)
- PvdA (Netherlands)
- Parti Socialiste (France)
- Parti Socialiste (Belgium)
- Partito Democratico (Italy)
- Socialdemokraterne (Denmark)
- Socialdemokratiska arbetareparti (Sweden)
- Israeli Labour Party
- Fraternal Parties of China
- Other fraternal parties not specified as opportunities arise
- Progressive Alliance
- Global Progress

EXPECTED INPUT BY THE ORGANISATION

Australian Labor International will maintain full planning and implementation control of this program.

ALI's building fraternal party relationship program consolidates and progresses the work that ALI has been conducting with progressive, social democratic and labour parties since its inauguration. The aim of this program is to strengthen the ALP's bilateral links with progressive, social democratic and labour parties around the world and to connect skilled individuals from these parties with their colleagues on an international basis to further the dissemination of best-practice processes and skills in Party building and management and campaigning.

ALI's fraternal relationships multilateral program also consolidates and progresses the work that the program has been conducting with progressive organisations and think-tanks. The aim of this program is to strengthen the links with progressive organisations and think-tanks, such as the Chifley Research Centre, and to connect skilled individuals from these organisations with their colleagues on an international basis to further the dissemination of best-practice processes and skills in progressive policy development.

Activity Statement

Australian Labor International will also plan and host the fifth International Progressive Campaign Forum providing a space for international progressive, social democratic and labour parties to build capacity by sharing experiences, skills and knowledge in the fields of Party building and resourcing and campaigning. Multi-lateral partners will provide logistical and program support on a needs basis. Each participating party will provide program input and strategic direction for the forum.

ESTIMATED COSTS

The overall budget for the Activity will be $ 330,000.00

The costs will include all expenses associated with travel and implementation of the Activity, however administration costs will be incorporated into the overall administration costs will be included in the "Administration & Staffing" budget component of this proposal.

MONITORING AND EVALUATION STATEMENT

ALI's fraternal party relationship program will continue to progress the work that ALI has been conducting with progressive, social democratic and labour parties in recent years..

Relationships and bilateral links with progressive, social democratic and labour parties around the world will connect skilled individuals from these parties with their colleagues on an international basis to further the dissemination of best-practice processes and skills in Party building and management and campaigning.

ALI will also utilise and draw on skills learnt to strengthen and enhance the delivery of the training in the Emerging Democracies Program..

Activities planned to be undertaken will include but not be limited to:

- International Progressive Campaign Forum
- Attendance at Progressive Alliance meetings
- Election observation
- Other delegations from time to time

Australian Labor International's International Progressive Campaign Forum provides a space for international progressive, social democratic and labour parties to build capacity by sharing experiences, skills and knowledge in the fields of Party building and resourcing and campaigning.

Indicators of success of this forum will be based upon creating a culture of greater sharing and contact between participating parties outside of the forum and the creation and dissemination of best-practice processes and skills in party building and management and campaigning

Additionally, attendance at conferences and conventions and potential research projects will assist in the development and delivery of new programs.

ALI will seek feedback both through reports from delegates involved in all activities to monitor and assess the value of the program to both ALI and fraternal parties.

Activity Statement

ADMINISTRATION AND STAFFING (2017 -2018)

Relating to Tranche 1 for Activities commenced between 1 July 2017 and 30 June 2018.

ESTIMATED TIMING OF ACTIVITY

For costs incurred between 1 July 2017 and 30 June 2018.

COUNTRIES AND ORGANISATIONS TO BE ASSISTED / VISITED

As outlined in Activities #1 and #2.

EXPECTED INPUT BY THE ORGANISATION

Australian Labor International will maintain complete and comprehensive financial records for all expenditure relating to administration and staffing costs.

ESTIMATED COSTS

The overall budget for Administration, Staffing and other reasonable expenses associated with the running of a program of international liaison will be $430,000.00

MONITORING AND EVALUATION STATEMENT

ALI will monitor the use of funds allocated to Administration and Staffing closely to ensure that they are fall within the guidelines of the program and provide the most cost effective outcomes for the activities as outlined in Activity #1 and Activity #2.