Thanks s22 [REDACTED]

Yes, Mr Bowen would like to move forward with early termination, and accepts those conditions
For your/sgfleet's information, he intends to order a Tesla 3

In your hands on next steps

Dear s22 [REDACTED]

Apologies for my delayed response.

Early return of current leased vehicle

Below is a breakdown of expected costs if Mr Bowen wishes to proceed with the early termination of his PPV lease.

Costs associated with early termination –

- Early termination fee payable by Mr Bowen - $500
- Residual value - $28,350.14 (as per sgfleet forecast at beginning of lease)

If Mr Bowen proceeds with the early termination of his PPV lease, he would be liable for any additional expense the Commonwealth has incurred due to the early termination.

As a definite figure, Mr Bowen would be required to pay the $500 early termination fee and if Finance would raise an invoice for this amount.

If the vehicle is sold for more than the expected residual value ($28,350.14), Mr Bowen would not need to pay any other charges. However, if the vehicle sells for less than $28,350.14, Finance would raise an invoice for Mr Bowen to pay the difference between the sale price and the residual value (in addition to the $500 early termination fee).

Based on the estimated resale value advice from sgfleet at this time, it appears is unlikely Mr Bowen will need to pay additional funds, however this is not guaranteed.

If Mr Bowen would like to move forward with the early termination, MaPS needs email confirmation that he accepts the conditions above.

New vehicle

I have attached the latest leasing matrix which shows zero emissions vehicles available to lease as a PPV. The MaPS vehicle list (last update March 2021) is currently being updated with the latest vehicles, including the Tesla Model 3, however there are also some other electric vehicles currently on there. I've also attached for your reference.

If Mr Bowen wishes to proceed with a new vehicle (subject first to email confirmation regarding the early termination of current lease), sgfleet will then commence that process and advise directly regarding expected delivery times etc.

I hope this information is of assistance.

Kind regards

Hi s22 [redacted]

Thanks for your time just now

As discussed, Mr Bowen is seeking to end his current lease and instead lease an electric vehicle

Grateful for your advice on the process/implications of doing so

Cheers
