Comcover claims: Brett Cattle, Robodebt, Fiona Brown, and Linda Reynolds.

Key points*Brett Cattle

- Judgment on the number of lost exports was delivered on 5 June 2025.
  - The Court rejected the class's claim for additional lost exports and found that there were only 88,000 lost exports, consistent with the Commonwealth's position.
  - The Commonwealth seeks its costs of the latest hearing on the basis that it was successful in that hearing.
- The class filed a notice of appeal on 5 August 2025. The future timetabling of the matter, including the appeal hearing date, is expected to be determined by 3 November 2025.
- The Commonwealth remains committed to resolving the claim, consistently with the Court's findings.

Robodebt

- The Commonwealth has agreed to pay $475m (plus administrative and legal costs) to settle the matter.
- The Court must now consider the settlement and determine if it is fair and reasonable. If so, they will approve the settlement agreement.
- This settlement is in addition to the repayment by the Commonwealth of all debts and interest following the first Robodebt class action (Prygodecz).
- All other enquiries should be directed to the Attorney-General's Department.

Fiona Brown

- On 10 March 2025, Ms Fiona Brown (Senator Reynolds' former chief of staff) filed a claim against the Commonwealth in the Federal Court of Australia.
- The matter is being managed by Comcover in accordance with the Legal Services Directions 2017.

Linda Reynolds

- On 28 April 2025, Ms Linda Reynolds filed a claim against the Commonwealth in the Federal Court of Australia.
- A case management hearing is scheduled for 8 October 2025.
- The matter is being managed by Comcover in accordance with the Legal Services Directions 2017.
- As the matter is before the Court, it would be inappropriate to comment further.

COMCOVER MATTERS*Background*Brett Cattle

- This class action arises from the decision of Justice Rares on 2 June 2020 in Brett Cattle Company Pty Ltd v Minister for Agriculture, Fisheries & Forestry & Anor [2020] FCA 732. His Honour found that the order made by the then Minister Ludwig on 7 June 2011 to suspend live exports to Indonesia was unlawful and that the former Minister had committed the tort of misfeasance in public office.
- Since Justice Rares handed down his decision, the class has consistently argued that the suspension caused a much higher number of lost exports: up to 800,000 head of cattle. The Commonwealth could not resolve the claim on that basis.
- Settlement negotiations have been unsuccessful to date. The Commonwealth offered to resolve the claim for $215 million (all inclusive) in December 2022, with the class providing a counteroffer of $510 million plus interest and costs in November 2023.

Robodebt

- The Attorney-General's Department managed the final stages of this matter on behalf of the Commonwealth.
- Prior to that point, Services Australia and Comcover managed the claim.
- Comcover is covering the first $100 million of the costs associated with the claim.
- A public statement is available on the Attorney-General's Ministerial website.

Fiona Brown

- Ms Brown's claim generally arises from the circumstances surrounding the incident involving Brittany Higgins and Bruch Lehrmann, and the subsequent management of that incident in the workplace.

Reynolds

- Ms Reynolds' claim makes allegations concerning the Commonwealth's management of the claim brought by Ms Brittany Higgins, including the mediation and settlement of that claim.
- An amended statement of claim was filed on 11 June 2025.
