Global Watch Office Situation Report

Iran

US strikes nuclear sites

Key Developments

- The US conducted air strikes on Iran's nuclear facilities at Fordow, Natanz and Esfahan.
- Media reported six bunker-busting bombs were dropped on the Fordow facility from US Air Force B-2 bombers, while Esfahan and Natanz were targeted with Tomahawk cruise missiles from submarines.
- Trump delivered an Address to the Nation from the White House.
 - Trump described the strikes as a 'spectacular military success' and warned of more strikes 'if peace does not come quickly'.
- Iran's state media acknowledged that part of the Fordow uranium enrichment facility as well as the Isfahan and Natanz nuclear sites were attacked.
- Iran's state media declared that every American citizen and soldier in the region is now a 'legitimate target'.
